EGGS PARTIALLY COMPENSATE LOSS

J. R. Cox, wagon yard manager, Commerce avenue and Second street, Friday said he was a mighty unlucky man, but that it might have been worse. Cox was out $150 but in possession of a box of freah country eggs.

Thursday night he hid the money in the box of eggs just purchased. Police complaint said a sneak thief entered Cox's wagon yard and stole the money. However, not being hungry the thief left the eggs and was careful not to break one.

PARTY FUNDS OF NO INTEREST, SAYS "DRY

HAMLINE, Minn., Sept. 10.-The ountry at large will not care 30 cents to find out the exast figures or even the approximate figures of any cam-paign fund, said Aaron S. Watkins, Prohibition candidate for president, in a speech at the Minnesota state fair

"The real questions of this year are the league of nations, the labor problem and the extinction of the flquor traffic. On all these questions we believe that the rural population can be reached with reason and will vote in accordance therewith."

Mr. Watkins devoted the major portion of his speech to a discussion of rural problems, the nost important of which, he said, was self-preservation and the steady decrease of rural population.
